COMMUNICATION WORKSHOP

Teambuilding, understanding and embracing differences is the essence of this engaging workshop where we combine how great communication works with highly engaging music and lots of fun.

To create a fun and engaging learning environment we have merged the DiSC behavioral theory with the language of music. The participants will experience an inspiring communication tool that is easy to implement. They will be working with each other and the band to write and perform an original song resulting in a unifying experience fostering connections and friendships - all about how to get along with at song.

Using the inclusive and transformational power of music, the communication tool will be experientially delivered to the participants in a unique and uplifting way. Music is linked to memory, understanding and emotion. Therefore, your participants will form stronger emotional connections with each other and the organization in a unique and uplifting way

LEARNER OUTCOMES

The participants will experience a unique and engaging workshop that will change the way they communicate in the future.

The participants will experience that the music strongly supports the learning and teambuilding. It will leave a lasting impression.

In the future, the music will always support you to bring the memory of the learning and the emotions back.

ABOUT DISC

DiSC is the leading personal assessment tool used by over 1 million people every year to improve work productivity, teamwork and communication. The DiSC profile is a non-judgmental tool used for discussion of people's behavioral differences. The participants will get an idea about what DiSC-type they are, and from that the music will evolve.

The DiSC model provides a common language that people can use to better understand themselves and adapt their behaviors with others.

All DiSC styles and priorities are equally valuable. We are all a blend of all four styles. Your work, management and leadership styles are also influenced by other factors such as life experiences, education, and maturity.

Gaining a better understanding of yourself is the first step to becoming more effective when working with others. You can then improve the quality of communication and build more effective relationships.
